BIG: How Your BIG Thinking About Impact - and Getting Comfortable with Risk - Can Change the World

Join Jamie McDonald, a former investment banker who now leads large-scale social innovation initiatives in Baltimore and around the country, for a talk about accomplishing YOUR big goals for your life and your world.

Jamie is a nationally known social-sector entrepreneur and the founder of Generosity Inc. Jamie serves as an advisor to socially motivated CEOs and visionaries driving large-scale change. From the Campaign for Black Male Achievement, to the Belfer Center for Innovation and Social Impact at 92Y, to the Center for Urban Families, to GivingTuesday, to Light City Baltimore, Jamie counsels game-changing leaders and initiatives.

Jamie has been featured in publications including the Wall Street Journal, the Huffington Post, the Chronicle of Philanthropy, the White House Social Innovation Blog, NTEN, The Baltimore Sun and many others. She is featured in the recently released book, Women Make Great leaders, by bestselling author, Jill Griffin.

Noon - 1 p.m.
University Center 310

The Raymond V. Haysbert, Sr. Entrepreneurship Lecture Series provides a platform for successful entrepreneurs to candidly share their experiences and insights with UMBC students, faculty, alumni and the Baltimore business community. The series highlights experiences, lessons learned and unique issues and challenges faced by entrepreneurs in the creation of a new enterprise.
