STEPHEN AUVIL

MARCH 11 , 12-1
UNIVERSITY CENTER 115 D

Perfecting the pitch involves having the ability to effectively communicate your business idea, which is critical to your success. Your pitch, sometimes in a matter of minutes or seconds, will determine whether a stranger will take an interest in you and your business or just walk away.

In this workshop, you will learn how to effectively give your pitch, along with an emphasis on the investor pitch including what should be said and how it should be delivered.
