THE RAYMOND V. HAYSBERT, SR. ENTREPRENEURSHIP LECTURE SERIES

Success as an Intrapreneur and Innovator in Arts and Education

Join Carol Bogash as she describes a successful career creating programs at various arts and education institutions ranging from the Smithsonian to orchestras to universities to public schools. As an intrapreneur, she describes how to act as an entrepreneur within a large organization, using the risk-taking and innovative practices that generate audiences, revenue, and lasting impact.

Come learn how it's possible to have a successful career in arts and education leveraging creativity, innovation, partnerships, and a willingness to take a calculated risk.

Wednesday, September 26, 2018
Noon - 1 p.m.
University Center 310

The Raymond V. Haysbert, Sr. Entrepreneurship Lecture Series provides a platform for successful entrepreneurs to candidly share their experiences and insights with UMBC students, faculty, alumni and the Baltimore business community. The series highlights experiences, lessons learned and unique issues and challenges faced by entrepreneurs in the creation of a new enterprise.
